

Sample Photography Mission Statements

Women in Photography International:

To promote the visibility of women photographers and their work through a variety of programs, exhibitions, juried competitions and publications.

DFM Photography (Wedding Photographer):

For every client to know that they have been provided the best quality photography services available.

Gary D. Tonhouse (Nature Photographer):

"Dedicated to helping create an appreciation...awareness an concern for our environment through the power of education and photography"

Joel Becker (Digital Photographer):

To serve the commercial community with creative photographic images, custom tailored to "State of the Art" digital capture cameras and digital assembly tools. Delivered on time and in the appropriate form.

To seek a fair and equitable trade or currency for our service.

To continually seek ways of improving and expanding our service through the education of ourselves and others.

New England Aerial Photography:

Our mission is to provide our clients with the highest quality aerial photography achievable. In order to accomplish this goal, we've combined our 50 years of experience as photographer and pilot using the equipment and techniques that have proven to be the absolute best for this type of photography. In the final analysis our experience and commitment to excellence benefits you, our clients, the most. You'll also find that this process will be friendly, enjoyable and unique. Please look over our samples and stock photographs and e-mail or call us with any questions that you may have. We thank you for your interest and look forward to being "overhead" for you in the near future.

Wedding Bureau:

The goal of the Wedding Bureau is to provide superior photography to couples planning a wedding, through a network of distinguished photojournalists that is both accessible and affordable. At the same time, we hope to pair the tremendous creative ability of our photographers with reliable and dependable customer service from the Wedding Bureau offices in Atlanta. The result is not only an album of photographs unmatched in their ability to capture the soul and spirit of that special day, but also a thoroughly enjoyable experience for the bride and groom, from the moment they first meet their photographer in the months before the wedding, to the moment they receive their hand-crafted album from the Wedding Bureau.
